2022 Charity Cup

The Charity Cup is awarded to the school or school house (in the case of Shore) with the highest average funds raised per team as at midnight the day before the race (1 May 2021).   This competition was also extremely close with the results as follows:

For 2021:

3rd Place: Shore Gilmour House

2nd Place: Shore Mathers House

1st Place: Shore School House

It is worth noting that Shore School House raised themselves an amazing $8,920.

TEAMS

2022 Team Participation

We had teams participate in the Schools Relay across eight schools, with new participant Pymble Ladies College (1 intermediate and 1 senior team). With 100 teams registered, 90 participated on the day, and all ran smoothly thanks to the great work by the school's representatives. Special mention must be made of Riverview who had 35 teams participate on the day.

The tables below show the split of teams by school both registered and those that competed.
